BISHOP HOBAN ATTENDED.

Addressed the Catholic Historical Society Last Night.

An unusually interesting programme was observed at last night's meeting asked. Call and see the of the Catholic Historical society and Newman Magazine clubs at their par-Ludwig, as well as the Briggs, Vose and Kuabe Horan was present by special invitalors in the Guernsey building. Bishop tion and made an encouraging address to the members at the conclusion of the exercises.

The papers included treatises on the ubjects "The Crusades," Miss Catherine Haggerty; "Effect of Ritualism on Catholicity," Miss Sarah Walsh; "Catholic Sisters as Nurses," Miss Mary O'Brien; "Maryland, the Cradle of Catholicity," William F. Shean, A review of the secular magazines for November was given by Miss Eva Barrett, and a song by Miss Nellie Flynn proved a pleasant diversion.

In commenting upon the papers Bishop Hoban touched interestingly upon several off the ideas that were suggested As to the idea of the common rehools as put in practice in the United States. he made the statement, that its origin was with the Jesuits and not in England as so frequently stated. pilgrims of Massachusetts found their prototpye in Holland. It is a matter of history that Stadtholder of Holand, who first instituted the common schools of that country sent out emmission to examine into the Jesuit thools along the Rhine and adopted for Holland the system the commission found in vogue at these Jesuit schools If the mooted points in United States history are studied from a true historical source, he said, it would be found that almost all the important work towards the foundation of true libery can be traced to the Catholic church. Referring to the present cruade again the Jews in France, which as touched upon in Miss Haggerty's paper, he said it is not to be attributed o differences of religion, but purely and solely to economic reasons. It concluding he spoke commendatory of the work of the society and urged it o persevere along the lines it has laid out.

ing Sought.

Ignatz Rosmozvitch, of Duryec, was committed to the county jail yesterday by Alderman Millar, of this city, on a charge of murder. Rosmozvitch was arrested at Barbertown Saturday by County Detective Leyshon and was detained in the county jail until yesterday when he was formally arrested on a charge of murder and committee to the county fail.

It is alleged that Rosmozvitch is implicated in the death of Richard Howell, of Pitiston, who was killed in a wreck on the Lehigh Valley railroad near Babylon, about a month ago. The wreck was supposed to have been the work of the desperate outlaws who for some time have infested the vic-Inity of Austin Heights in the southern portion of this county. The arrest is a very important one and is the first step in the direction of bringing this desperate band of criminals to justice.

A swarm of peace officers and detectives have been working on the case for some time and it is a tribute to Mr. Leyshon's cleverness as a detective that he is the first person to secure anything like tangible results.

When seen by a Tribune man yesterday he absolutely refused to discuss the matter or give any idea of the strength of the case against Rosmozyitch. In his opinion the time is not yet ripe for any disclosures,

The accused is a small man of ficrce aspect and he is said to be one of the leading members of the gang that is held responsible for the death of Brakeman Howell. Two men who are reputed to be leaders of the band of outlaws are now being anxiously sought for by the authorities and it is probable they will be in custody within a few days.

LARGELY ATTENDED SUPPER.

Served by the Hebrew Ladies' Relief Association.

The Hebrew Ladies' Relief association served an elegant supper last night at the Excelsior club for the benefit of their society. It was very largely patronized and was most enjoyable. Music and dancing began at o'clock when ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. J. R. Cohen is president of the society, and Mrs. M. Simons is tressurer. Other ladies who assisted in the work of the evening were Mrs. Ben Samter, Mrs. Sam Samter, Mrs. Max Troutfelt, Mrs. E. L. Chapman, Mrs. J. Kline, Mrs. S. Kline, Mrs. M. Brown, Mrs. S. Ettinger, Mrs. Goldsmith, Mrs. A. Harris, Mrs. E. Moses. At the candy table were Mrs. Jeff Freeman, Miss. Samter. At the cigar booth were Mrs.

Joseph Levy and Mrs, Barchrach. Among the young ladies who served were Misses Goldsmith, Chapman, Helen Moses, Miss Blanche Ettinger, of Baltimore, Miss Florence Brooks.

RAILS HAVE BEEN ORDERED. N. Y., W. & W. R. R. Co. Now Seems to Be a Certainty.

NOT FIGHT CRAZY.

Scranton Did Not Go Wild Over the Big Battle.

While the interest in the Sharkeyorbett fight was general in Scranton yesterday it did not begin to approach the heat and excitement occasioned by any of the really big battles of the last few years in which Corbett has been one of the principals. In fact the interest, such as it was,

was extremely common place. Corbett was picked for a winner by t least nine out of every ten persons a Scranton who follow things pugilistic, but everybody was timid about betting or else the odds were too short to attract the Sharkey element. Not large bet was made in this city, although one of $1,000 to $750 was offered on Corbett by John McGinley in | period. the Gaiety theater after the fourth round had been fought.

The number of persons who went from here to New York for the express purpose of seeing the argument was very small. They probably did not number more than ten. The vast majority who stayed at home and were anxious to know how the battle was going, had opportunity to gratify their corporate rights-in fact, every intercuriosity at any one of a half dozen cafes and clubs where bulletins were received or at the Galety theater when the bulletins were read from the stage during a midnight performance given especially for that purpose.

The crowd at the Gaiety was not lerge. It was a pronounced Corbett audience, and the announcement that Sharkey had won was received in silence. Manager Van Osten read the re-Rosmozvitch did not know until yes- | turns. During the fourth round he re ceived a card from John T. McGinley him. the performance to a close, Jim Judge, Jack Skelly, John Shea and Phil Rinsland were among the Scrantonians at the ringside. A search n the audience might have revealed, lowever, several Scranton business nen and others who were in New York on business and wandered into the Lenox club house by accident.

SECOND GONDOLIER NIGHT.

Another Large and Fashionable Audience Delighted by the Opera.

Last night's production of the Gon lollers was witnessed by an audience which filled all the reserved seats in the theater and nearly all of the gallery. As on the opening night the personnel of the gathering represented Scranton's best known people, upon all of whom was impressed the fact that the opera was sung in something much better than the usual amateur style. It is that air of excellence and smoothness which, more than personal interest in the performers, has caused the opera to be received with so much

YOUNG THIEF ARRESTED.

He Used Stolen Money to Buy a Revolver and Cartridges.

Roy May, an II-year-old boy who resides on the hill, was arrested last night for the theft of a pocketbook containing money from a counter in Rexford's jewelry store on Lackawanna

Quite a large crowd was in the store yesterday when a woman from out of town and whose name could not be sarned reported that her pocketbook containing $6 and a railroad ticket had been stolen from off the counter. Young May, who had been in the store, was suspected. A description of him was furnished to the police and he was arrested by Patrolman Neuls on Wyoming avenue last night.

When searched the boy's pockets revealed a revolver, two boxes of cartridges and 60 cents in small change, He admitted his guilt, and said he had given $2.10 to another boy who was with him and who will be arrested this morning.

REVIVING OF THE TELEPHONE FIGHT

HAS CAUSED NO END OF GOS-SIP ABOUT CITY HALL.

Merely a Blind to Cover a Second Attempt of the Original Company to Secure a Franchise Is Denied. There Is Nothing Certain About the Time When Application Will Be Made to Councils-May Be Delayed New Council Organizes.

Lively comment was occassioned in the city hall and among councilmen and in local financial circles yesterday by The Tribune's annoucement that the Lackawanna Telephone company's charter and other rights had been purchased by a well known coterie of moneyed men who intended at tomorrow night's meeting of common council to begin an effort to secure a franchise, something which the original Lackawanna organization failed to do after a bitter and memorable councilmanic fight.

The news was not news to the coun ilmen, at least not to many of them in both branches. The project has been broached to them during the past few days, but they were asked not to discuss it with outsiders. The new promoters realize that they will have an uphill fight on their hands to secure the franchise and that prenature publicity would not help them. Hence the secrecy maintained until the publication of The Tribune's story resterday.

NOT PLAUSIBLE.

It was argued vesterday, but with little or no foundation, that the new organization was merely a blind to over a second effort of the original company to get the franchise. es not seem plausible from the fact that the individuals now interested have never had any business, political or other affiliations with thos

There remains the possibility that the effort may be deferred until after the spring election, when councils will have at least a different individual complexion than now. Another contingency, either in the event of a defeat in trying to get the franchise now or in deferring the attempt until next spring, is that the new company may take a hand in the councilmante elections, having in view the election of councilmen favorable to the com-

The dance programme was made up of a grand march, May Pole dance, quadrilles, lanciers, Virgina reel, and a cake walk. Round dances and other "highfalutin goins-on" were tabooed. An interesting feature of the evening was a husking bee, arranged and conducted by Daniel P. Murray.
